You Should Have Been There!!!

On March 14, the VBA held its third Banquet and by all accounts it was a tremendous success. We were joined by Bill Woodfin, Director of the Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries, and Bob Duncan, Director, Wildlife Division, VDGI. We all enjoyed talking to Bill and Bob and hearing what they had to say about where the Department was headed and how the monies received as a result of House Bill 38 passing would be spent. As our guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Woodfin also spoke about the future of hunting in Virginia. Many of the attendees received door prizes and there were hundreds of dollars worth of archery equipment (including C S Talon and Matthews bows) raffled off during the evening. We also had the opportunity to see many of the trophy deer mounts that won this year and last, as well as some of Bob Agnew's terrific whitetail trophies from Virginia and mule deer from New Mexico. The dinner was great (especially the apple pie) and there was plenty of it. All in all, Dave Burpee and the Bowhunter Committee did a great job with this year's banquet. You should have been there!

Cherokee Archers hosted this year's Spring 3-D on April 4 and 5 and they did a wonderful job. I wish they'd had a better handle on the weather, but I guess they did what they could. Saturday was cold and rainy all day long, but that didn't dampen the spirits of the participants at all. Cherokee provided some super entertainment on Saturday night that warmed up everyone. Sunday was dry and warmer even though it was still a bit muddy. The two-day event provided a lot of fun and laughs for everyone present. It also proved to be a terrific range to shoot (better if you're coming downhill) as long as you stayed away from the stumps. Cherokee Archers were great hosts. You should have been there!

The last VBA meeting was held on March 15 in Charlottesville. We discussed and voted on issues ranging from

Order of the Golden Feather nominations to spending VBA money on equipment, trophies, etc. The club representatives in attendance were able to voice the concerns and issues important to their club members. The VBA, like any organization, depends upon its membership for direction and guidance. If a club is not represented they have no voice in the direction the VBA travels. At the last quarterly meeting there were thirteen clubs NOT represented. You should ask your club rep if they were there and encourage them to attend all of the quarterly meetings. Club Representatives — you should have been there!

On May 23 and 24, Augusta Archers hosted the VBA State Open and did a fine job. They too had some weather problems, and some folks are beginning to think that it has something to do with my showing up at the shoots. Personally, I believe it is probably the result of El Niño. We had 90 folks registered, with fewer finishing after two days of rain and associated problems. Some hard-working Augusta members provided a top-flight range and super hospitality, even in the rain. You should have been there!

Congratulations to all the winners at the Spring 3-D Classic and the State Open. Results and pictures can be found in the following pages of Flight.

The last thing I want to mention is club updates for inclusion in VBA history. We have been asking for these since last September and have held up publication waiting for several clubs to submit them. Club reps and officers have been contacted and asked to provide current information. Those clubs that have not provided the necessary information by June 30 will have the old data, if any exists, published in the History of Affiliated Clubs. We need updates from the following clubs: Augusta, Loudoun, New River, Rockingham, Manahoac, Kingsboro, Massanutten, Shenandoah, Walton Park and Warwick. We would prefer to have everyone represented with up-to-date

From The Hunting Vice President

The column this issue centers on a summary of several important topics. Each will be addressed in more detail at the June meeting, so plan to attend!

First, we are fortunate to have found a terrific volunteer as the new Chairman of the VBA Hunting Committee. Steve Lowe from Cherokee Archers is a great addition to the VBA leadership and will receive the support of all officers. All clubs are encouraged to attend the Hunting Committee meetings that are held in conjunction with the quarterly VBA meetings. Participation has been a disappointment in the past year with fewer than four clubs represented at any one time. Obviously this is not adequate to address and resolve the many issues that face Virginia bowhunters.

The April meeting of the VDGIF Board of Directors discussed many issues, including hunting on Fort Pickett, issues related to hunting preserves and trapping, a review of bird hunting in the state, and most importantly, a discussion of Sunday hunting. The bottom line on this topic was that the VDGIF does not want to get out in front of the politicians on this sensitive issue and only went so far as to authorize the staff to "look into the subject." It is far too early to predict what might happen, but it is clear that whatever happens will only be done after considerable public discussion and consultation with all members of the State Legislature.

The VDGIF also expressed appreciation to all individuals and organizations, including the VBA, for actions in support of HR 38. This measure passed through two committees and both houses of the legislature without a dissenting vote - certainly a rare event. The passage of the bill means that the VDGIF will have a reliable source of funding beginning in the year 2000 that will supplement by $12 million the funds it currently receives from licenses and other sources. Without that money the VDGIF would be broke in about four years and many of the hunting and other outdoor programs would have been seriously jeopardized. Thanks for your help!

✿ Fond Memories ✿

One summer afternoon in the late 1960's, my husband Jerry returned home from a local archery tournament and announced that he had met the "nicest" couple that day. When I began shooting archery the following year, I was introduced to this couple, too. They were Dutch and Mertie Shultz and a friendship developed that lasted for many years.

At that time, Mertie was one of the top female archers in the state, so I quickly learned from her. Not just about shooting, but about her love of the outdoors and knowledge of the flowers that spread to those of us who shot alongside her. She was practically impossible to beat! I very seldom did in those first years of archery, and I doubt that Dutch ever did!

During those years, we traveled with Dutch and Mertie to most of the State shoots; the Indoor when it was by Norva, the Open down at Richmond Archers, the Closed at Sherwood, the Mids in Watkins Glen, and the trips to the VBA meetings. If Dutch and Mertie were here they would tell you some pretty good stories about the adventures we had together. Those days were the best of times for us in archery and left us with so many fond memories to look back upon.

Dutch and Mertie were in love with each other and with the sport of archery. They loved to teach the children the basics of archery at 4-H camp and Camp Fantastic each summer. They did this for many years, until Mertie passed away in 1987.

After Mertie's death, Jerry and I kept in touch with Dutch. He would spend time with us during the holidays and still travel to some shoots. Dutch and I continued our trips to the VBA meetings. We have laughed together and we have cried together.

Dutch moved to Seattle a few years back to live near his only son and daughter-in-law, his grandsons and great-grandchildren. But we never lost touch with him. He would write or call and tell us about the beauty out West, the mountains and bald eagles, and about playing the organ for the "old" ladies at the retirement home.

On March 19, 1998, Dutch passed away; he was 92 years old. I cried that day, but through my tears, I smiled. Jerry and I will always have the fond memories that no one can ever take away of two people who made a difference in our lives, and, without a doubt, in the lives of many others.

— Ann R. Boyd

VBA Schedules Antler Scoring Class

Each year the VBA sponsors a hunting awards program that includes prizes for best antlers according to the Virginia Scoring System. And each year there are difficulties in finding enough persons throughout the state who are qualified to score the racks so they can be included in the competition.

This year the VBA is taking action to help alleviate the problem. Specifically, a one-hour class has been scheduled to qualify persons as official scorers. The instructor will be provided by the VDGIF for the class to be held Saturday, September 26 at 11:00 am in the main conference room of the Mount Vernon Best Western in Charlottesville.

Any VBA member is welcome to attend (in fact, attendance is encouraged!). You should provide your name to any VBA officer in advance so we can be prepared for the appropriate class size. So far, more than two dozen persons have indicated they will attend to help broaden the base of official scorers in the state. The names of all attendees will be published in the next issue of Flight.

VBA Supports Anti-Game Violation Efforts

The VBA helps its members in many ways, some of them obvious and some of them rather obscure. One of the more obscure ways we help is also one of the most important.

The VBA is now a key part of the Virginia Sportsman Reward Fund Board. This Board of about 20 members is appointed by the VDGIF and is composed of people from sportsman groups around the state. Currently the VBA has four members on the Board: Bob Seltzer, Clinton Western, John Stockman and Chris Anton.

The Board receives notifications of game law violations that have been reported by private citizens and that have resulted in an arrest. Based on the seriousness of the charges and the personal risk to the citizen in making the report, the Board awards the citizen a dollar amount in recognition of his/her effort. The amount varies in size but averages about $100.

The money to support the awards comes from donations and the VBA has also helped by contributing to the fund. The fund itself is administered by the VDGIF and payments are made by the VDGIF acting on the Board's recommendations.

This Board is a strong deterrent to game law violations. The VBA is proud to be a strong participant and to represent its members as well as all hunters in the state. 🦌 information, but we can't delay publication beyond June 30.

The outdoor ranges should all be in great shape with all the rain we've had across the state. They may, in fact, have to be cut back because of it. The ones I've been on so far this year have all looked super and until the past week or so the temperature has been comfortable. I certainly needed the practice. What I'm getting at is this: the ranges are great, the weather is good, it's a family sport... You should be out there! 🦌

IN THE KITCHEN WITH WINNIE & WALLY

Sauerbraten-Style Venison Roast

approx. 4 lb. venison round roast, 3" or 4" thick

2 cups cider vinegar

2 cups hot water

2 cups yellow onions, sliced

4 bay leaves

16 whole cloves

1 Tbsp. salt

1/4 tsp. pepper, or to taste

4 Tbsp. dark brown sugar

5 Tbsp. cooking oil

12 gingersnap cookies,
crumbled

Make marinade by mixing vinegar, water, onions, bay leaves, cloves, salt, pepper and brown sugar. Place venison in a large glass container and pour marinade over. Place venison in refrigerator and marinate for 24 hours. Remove venison from marinade and wipe dry. Reserve and strain the marinade. Brown the venison in hot oil, then place in heavy 4-quart skillet or Dutch oven. Add 3 cups of the reserved marinade to Dutch oven. Cover and simmer slowly about 2½ to 3½ hours. Thicken the pot gravy with the gingersnaps. Serve with wide egg noodles or potato dumplings.
