Flight Deadline

The deadline for the Spring issue of FLIGHT will be March 26, 2001. Please submit your articles of interest to the editor prior to that date. I encourage readers to send in letters to the editor. Remember, this is your newsletter!

From Your Publicity Director

Another busy year is over and so is the presidential election! As you know, one of the amendments that was passed was our "right" to hunt, fish and harvest game. That was a great achievement for us bowhunters! In the year 2001, VBA may see its own change as the election of officers takes place. A nominating committee was formed in September to ask the officers (except appointed officers, such as State Secretary/Treasurer, NBEF and Publicity Director) whether they would like to stay on or seek a new slate of candidates. The nominating committee will give its report at the January meeting.

As the first quarter begins in January, our State Secretary/Treasurer will be busy working with the club secretaries as they begin to submit new and renewal memberships and report their change of officers and/or committee members for the new year. Meanwhile, archers will be preparing for the State Indoor Tournament.

The following month, VBA will have booths at two sport shows. The Capital Sport Show will be held at the Capital Expo Center in Chantilly, Virginia, from February 16 - 18. The 14th Annual Western Virginia Sport Show will take place February 23 - 25 at Augusta Expoland in Fishersville, Virginia. (For more information, see respective ads in this issue.)

Another event occurring February 24- 25 is the VBA State Indoor hosted by Augusta Archers.

Hopefully, when the delegates come to the January meeting they will bring copies of their club brochures, pamphlets or other promotional materials to be included in the VBA hand out packets.

In March, Prince William and Augusta Archers will be hosting the Mid-Atlantic Indoor Sectional on the 3rd and 4th. Club shoots get underway this same month, and look for the VBA Annual Awards Banquet on March 17. What great timing for you Irish folks! With the overpopulation of deer, we hope to see more trophy bucks than ever, and especially yours at the awards banquet. How about those moose, caribou, elk, bear, turkey and others that were taken. They count, too! Remember to bring your pictures to the banquet and share stories of your hunting trips with us. And don't forget to submit your Bill Bennett applications so you can receive your plaques and pins. Mark your calendar now to attend this year's "biggest-ever" banquet. More details are on page 8 of this Flight.

We wish everyone the best "luck" at the Indoor. Show your participation in the VBA booth shows. Your continued support of VBA in soliciting and signing up new members is crucial to our success! And don't forget to take a kid shooting - they are the adults of tomorrow!

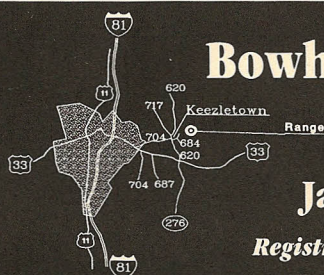

Hoping everyone has a great and joyous holiday with family and friends, we wish you all a happy and healthy New Year!

— Irene Stocksdale

New Jersey Loses Black Bear Season

Animal rights groups put pressure on legislators in New Jersey and influenced Governor Christine Todd Whitman to ask the Fish and Game Council to suspend the necessary black bear hunt scheduled for this September.

The council agreed to the postponement. Press releases from anti-groups indicate that they will push for passage of a ban on bear hunting and are now lobbying to put anti-hunters on the council.

Contact your legislator today at 1-800-792-8630 or use the Legislative Action Center on the WLFA website, www.wlfa.org, to contact your representative. Tell them you support the bear hunt and oppose anti-hunters on the Fish and Game Council.

IN THE KITCHEN WITH WINNIE & WALLY

Korean-Style Venison Short Ribs

4 lbs. venison short ribs
5 medium garlic cloves, minced
1/2 cup teriyaki sauce
3 Tbsp. sesame oil
2 tsp. gingerroot, minced
3 Tbsp. sugar
2 tsp. white wine vinegar
2 tsp. sesame seeds
1 tsp. pepper
18 pieces green onion, cut 2" - 4" long

Trim fat from venison short ribs. Cut the meat side of each rib to the bone at 1/2" intervals. Whisk together garlic, teriyaki sauce, sesame oil, gingerroot, sugar, vinegar, sesame seeds and pepper. Add this marinade with ribs and green onions to a plastic bag and marinate in the refrigerator overnight. Turn bag over occasionally. Remove ribs and green onions from the bag. Discard the marinade. Grill the ribs, meaty-side-down, for eight minutes; turn them over and grill for another six minutes, or until medium-rare. Grill the green onions, turning them occasionally, for four minutes, or until they are just browned. Serves six.
