Club News

The Warwick Bowmen club made hosting a big tournament look easy when the 1983 NFAA Mid-Atlantic Sectional Championships were held at its ranges in Newport News, Virginia in June. A finely tuned organization headed by President John Street and led by tournament director Dorothy McGuire showed out-of-staters that Virginia is no stranger to championship competition.

A weekend of superb weather conditions and Warwick's near-perfect ranges provided east coast archers with an ideal scenario for giving their best performances. As professional Larry Wise predicted before the shoot, "With these conditions and Warwick's table-top ranges, some really good scores are going to be shot; to win here, the pros are going to have to shoot in the 550's." And, rising to his own prediction, the five-year Pennsylvania pro turned in scores of 550 and 552 for a 1102 total. But even that fine score was good enough for only a second-place finish as fellow-Pennsylvanian Jack Cramer bested Wise with a 1107.

The VBA made a fine showing with many of its members placing high in the standings. Warwick Bowmen appearing in the winners circle included David Mullins, Richard "Doc" Metz, Steve McGuire, Joseph Carr, Wayne Conrad, Ron Estrada Sr., Ron Estrada Jr., and Travis Godfrey. Other winners from Virginia were Barry McCarty, Rick Harper, Earlene Reeves, Pat Harwood, Ronnie Lewis, Frank Emswiler, Paul Crowley, Charlie Davis, Eugene Locke, Steve Russel, William Cood, Frank Holmes, Augie Whetzel, Robert Bowe, Ann Harper, Joe McManus, Gary Foley, Cay McManus, Dennis Cline, Johnny Buck, Vicki Moore, Andre Hertzler, Tony Overfelt, Bobby Rogers, Michael Lewis, Robert Harwood and Andrew Caldwell. Among them are seven of twenty-one archers declared Mid-Atlantic Champions.
