

VBA Meeting Notes

Tournament Awards Committee, chaired by Ralph Stevens, recommended that the Roving Silver Bowls be retired and replaced.

view of the fact that N.F.A.A. Mid-Atlantic Council has a motion on the floor pertaining to legislation in favor of protecting bowhunting which will be discussed at the N.F.A.A. meeting in February, Pres. Bolt named Ted Grefe, Jr. Booth, and Woody Woods to a bowhunting committee aimed at the protection of bowhunters' rights.

The Parramore Island Hunt was a huge success.

Anyone interested in having a bumper sticker with the V.B.A. emblem should inform his delegate or write one of the V.B.A. officers. The Board of Directors is considering a bumper sticker, but is unsure of the quantity required.

Ralph Stevens and Bill Bolt will be representing V.B.A. at the N.F.A.A. meeting in February.

As scheduled, Morgan Norval, National Director of Firearms Lobby of America, along with V.B.A. member Tink Nathan, gave a presentation concerning the activities of organizations against hunting. It was suggested that all conservation and hunting groups unite under one umbrella-type organization for more effective lobbying.

Gene Limerick, Clint Western, and Jr.

Booth were named to a Bowhunting Membership Study Committee.

Funds were allotted from the V.B.A. Conservation Funds to the Yorktown Naval Weapons Station to establish wildlife feeding stations at the Naval Wpns. Sts., and at Parramore Island.

NFAA Compound Release Aid

Ballot Results

Question 1: Are you in favor of the Compound Bow in its present form? Nationally, the ballot stated 9,340 Yes, 3,292 No. Of the Yes votes, 3,692 favored it in all divisions, 2,316 were for Free Style, 126 Bare Bow, 371 Bowhunters, and 3,139 favored the Compound Bow in a separate division. In Virginia, 425 said Yes to Question 1, 73 said No. Among the Yes answers, 195 said the compound bow should be allowed in all divisions, 128 said Free Style, 3 said Bare Bow, 18 said Bowhunter, and 95 said separate division.

Question 2: Are you in favor of Release Aids? Nationally, the ballot stated 8,362

Yes, 4192 No. Of the Yes votes, 2132 favored release aids in all divisions, 3,623 Free Style, 163 Bare Bow, 102 Bowhunter, and 2591 wanted them in a separate division. In Virginia, 383 said Yes to Question 2, 111 said No. Of the Yes votes, 88 said all divisions, 215 said Free Style, 12 Bare Bow, 1 Bowhunter, and 67 favored release aids in a separate division.

The ballot returns from Virginia ranked fifth in the Nation.

The total yes and no votes on the Compound Bow does not equal the total votes on Release Aids because some votes were cast for one of the questions, but not the other.
