From The Office Of Hunting Vice President

Now that the State champions have been determined, and fitting champs they are, we can turn our attention to the fast-approaching bow season. This season we want to stress safety above everything else. There is no justification for shooting at something we are not positive we intend to kill. There is no way we can justify a careless shot and there is no way we can tell the widow, mother, or children of a hunting buddy that we thought he was a deer. Think about it, is a chance shot at a deer worth endangering someone's life? Let's stalk or wait out our game until the chance of maybe being mistaken is past. Let's keep bowhunting the safest sport on the hunting scene.

Most game officials think bowhunters are real sportsmen. Let's not give them any reason to change this thinking. Let's think about hunting etiquette.

We all know a shooting stand or platform in a tree is the ideal way to get your buck. You are above your game and the air currents carry the human scent above the game. You have the advantage of being able to see farther, and usually you have an unobstructed position to draw and release your arrow. Now, there is one drawback to this tree stand business. A tree offering a good stand is usually growing any place except where you want your stand. The answer is one of the several tie-up stands on the market today. They look complicated to use but when they are demonstrated, what could do the job and be any simpler? A nailed up platform and wooden stake ladder? Remember, the landowner and the forestry officials are within their legal rights if they summon you for nailing a platform or a ladder to their trees! Be a good sport, tie up your tree stand and remove it when you get out of the tree.

Have you seen bowhunters on the fenders of cars and trucks, and standing in the back of trucks with strung bows? Does this strike you as being a sportsman-like method of hunting? You bet your life it isn't. What do you think Game and Forestry Officials think when they see this manner of hunting? What about our gun hunting friends? No wonder we have complaints about the bowhunter when we let these things happen to our sport. We have the best sport that is offered to hunters today. Let's protect it. Let's be real sportsmen and leave no one with any doubt about it.

A reminder—the last two weeks of bow season in the west will be overlapped with the small game season. During that time, choose your hunting area and stands with this in mind. If you hear gunfire in a small woodlot, your chances of shooting a deer there will be rather slim. It would be rather discouraging to wait in your stand until just about the magic moment and then have someone open up on a squirrel and shatter your chances. We have to share this season but, if we choose with care, we can still have an enjoyable season.

Here is something that was brought to my attention last season. Several fawns were killed during the season. Yes, they are deer too, and they are smaller and harder to hit. But, can we really be proud of harvesting such small specimens? As an excuse, I've been told they wouldn't withstand the winter, but I'm not convinced. It may take a little more skill and a little more patience to wait out that big deer, but wouldn't it be more rewarding? Can't you picture the thrill of a big buck hanging on your game pole at camp? For some bowhunters (most of us—Ed.), the real thrill is in the story connected with getting a shot, whether it's a successful one or a near miss.

G. B. BOOTH, JR.

VBA PATCHES

The new, colorful, arrowhead-shaped VBA patches are now available from Sue Price, Corres. Secretary, 1712 N. Quincy Street, Arlington, Virginia 22207. Price of the new patches—$1.00 each.

Scheduling Session

Club Directors! Don't forget about the scheduling session that will be held on October 10, 1964, 4:00 p.m., in the downstairs banquet room of the Holiday Inn Motel, Lynchburg, Va., on Route 29, north. If your club is represented, you may request and receive four shoots for 1965. If your club is not represented, your club will receive two shoots for 1965, the dates for these two shoots being selected by the delegates present. Be there, and protect your shooting dates.

WM. T. MARSHALL
Field Vice President

NOTICE

Cub Run Archers, Centerville, advises that their shoot on December 6th, will begin at 1:30 p.m. rather than the usual 9:00 a.m.

THE WINNERS

Past instinctive State champions Clifford Necessary and Mary Craft again successfully defended their crowns in the 18th Annual V.B.A. State Championship Shoot. Due to lack of space, no elaboration can be made on the State shoot, however, a list of the first, second and third place winners in each class is located elsewhere in this issue.

May I Cut In?

This is the question that may be asked you when you bring your better half to the dance that will be held in conjunction with the VBA scheduling meeting on October 10th. There will be a buffet style dinner in connection with and just prior to the dance. Cost will be about $2.00 to $2.50 for the dinner and roughly $1.00 each to dance. Dress will be informal and dinner will be served at about 7:00 p.m. Don't be bashful—bring a whole carload. The more the merrier.

THANKS!

I just want to say "Thank you" for making the State Shoot a tremendous success. I hope you enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed having you. A reminder also, whoever handles the shoot next year will surely have a job of a thousand and one things to do. Most preparations can be made in advance but there are numerous things that just seem to crop up. Some of the unsung heroes from Augusta Archers that never seem to get any credit for their efforts are: Ben Kern, Tommy Mace, Grady Armentrout, Irvine Gordon, Rhoda Gordon, Anna Mae Judd, Dotty Eby, Betty Eby, George Eby, Wilbert Cales, Shirley Kennedy, John Sayers, David Byrd, Leo Cloutier, Bill Sellers, Woody, Doris Woods, Doc Smith, Bill Woods, Vic Peyton, W. T. Kennedy, Vi Harmon, Nita Smith, Milton Klotz, Gladys Carmichael, Buell Fitzgerald, Robert Turner, Patty and Lula Arey, Virginia Aldrich, Thelma Ratcliff, Herman Kern, Athos Morganti, Joyce Johnson, Charles Coeyman, Bill Blackburn, Mark Judd, Rink Harman, and the detachment from Woodrow Wilson Rehab Center. Without the help of all these people, this State Shoot would have been an impossibility, so our club, The Augusta Archers, Inc., appreciate their efforts.
