Flight Deadline

The deadline for the July/
August issue of FLIGHT will be July 25, 1994. Submit your articles of interest to the editor prior to that date. I encourage readers to send in letters to the editor. Remember, this is your newsletter.

A "Big" Thank You, Staunton River and Cub Run

On behalf of all officers and members of the Virginia Bowhunters Association, Inc., I would like to truly thank the club members of Staunton River and Cub Run for the donations they recently presented to VBA.

From the hard work and efforts of their club members, Staunton River donated $273.00 from a 3-D shoot and Cub Run sent us $153.34, their proceeds from informal winter indoor shoots. Both clubs earmarked the money to be put into the VBA General Fund, which has been done, and this will certainly help with the expenses of running VBA.

Again, I thank you sincerely and appreciate your support of VBA through your financial aid.

— Ann R. Boyd
VBA Corresponding Secretary

Mark Cantatore, Bluemont, Virginia, with his 4 point buck.

From the Office of the Corresponding Secretary

Attention All Club Secretaries:

Please remember that ALL shoots that are listed on the VBA Schedule card, with the exception of one (1) annual, is subject to the 25 cents per shooter fee. This includes indoor, 3-D, and pin shoots, as well as all animal shoots. For example, if your club hosts a pin/3-D shoot, 25 cents must be mailed to my office for all shooters. Don't forget that the tournament reports for official rounds shot (field, hunter, or half of each) is due in my office the Friday following your shoot. There are some club secretaries that either do not understand the policy or that are simply lax in getting these reports and monies to me.

Remember, too, that effective at the March 1994 VBA meeting, pin shoot fees are now $5 for the first shooter $4/second and $3 each additional. (The $4 and $3 fees apply to families only.)

— Ann Boyd
VBA Corresponding Secretary

Club News

Triangle Archers

Triangle Archers has moved its annual William Tell from June 4 and 5 to July 23 and 24. The West Virginia Open is on June 4 and 5, in Beckley, West Virginia. Our annual William Tell novelty targets will be shot for fun and will not be part of the tournament. Registration fee $8.00. Trophies for highest round awarded at 4:30 on Sunday. Plenty of hot food and cold drinks available.

Richard and Travis Coyner. Bow kill by Richard Coyner in November 1993.

Shawnee Bowmen Shoots Cancelled

Shawnee Bowmen wishes to announce that all our shoots for the 1994 tournament season have been cancelled due to our club moving from its present location in the Izaak Walton Park to a new location. The cancelled shoots include pin shoots on July 24 and October 2, as well as our Annual Little Brown Jug scheduled for August 28.

We regret that we must cancel our shoots again this year, but we hope by the 1995 archery season to be "back in business" with a new and better range. All information will be printed in Flight as soon as our range is completed, along with a map so all can locate us. Thanks for your support these many years and we are looking forward to next year and seeing everyone again.
